* * * * *

Elizabeth, wife of Samuel (2) Vail, is the connecting link between the Westchester, N.Y. Vails and a numerous progeny, in Essex Co., N.J., primarily, but now widely extended in the United States and abroad. The maiden name of Elizabeth has not been definitely found yet; but as she is so important in establishing the connection she demands consideration. She was thrice married: (1st) to Samuel (2) Vail about 1677, for her first child, Samuel (3), was born 21 December, 1678. That she was the wife and later the widow of Samuel Vail is assured beyond doubt in a land record of Westchester which reads, "Elizabeth Vail quitclaims land to Thomas Hunt" (v. Vail Papers, Vol. 18:44, No. 82). The full reading of this extract from the "Westchester Town Records" is, "Elizabeth Vail, widow of Samuel Vail late of Westchester, quitclaims, etc.", dated 6th, June, 1695.

Elizabeth married (2nd) Thomas Gach (Gauge) of Westchester, N.Y., a ship builder who owned a house and land in Westchester.

The Vail Papers (Vol. 18:44) quote from the Westchester Town Records, the "sale of a house and 8 acres of land formerly owned by Thomas Gach, in Westchester" -- sold by Joseph Appleby to Samuel Vail (son of Elizabeth and Samuel (2) Vail, Feb. 28,

1705/6. Thomas Gach and wife removed from Westchester, N.Y., to Woodbridge, N.J. about the year 1701. We infer this from a deed of sale of "a house and lot at Woodbridge, N.J., April 14, 1701, sold by Thomas Codrington and wife of Thomas Gage late of Westchester, N.Y., Shipwright." (v. N.J. Archives, 1st Ser. Vol., 21, 140)

Thomas Guage died between the 28th March, 1703 and 23 April, 1703, dates of his will.

It states he lived in Woodbridge; was a shop carpenter; it names Elizabeth, as Executor, son Thomas and apparently other children, also names his "son-in-law, Thomas Veale" (v. N.J., Arch, 1st Ser. Vol., 23:182, also Middlesex Co. Wills). His inventory amounted to £ 71-6-0, including half interested in a boat equal to £ 30.

Elizabeth had at least two Gach children, viz: Mary and Thomas. Mary Gach married William Bloodgood, 1727 (v. Shotwell Family, p. 186; also Vail Papers, Vol. 16:13) Thomas Gach, mentioned in his mother's will, was an active member of the Woodbridge M.M. until disowned for quarreling with his brother. He was clerk of the Town of Woodbridge for many years. (v. Woodbridge and Vicinity, p. 71).

Elizabeth, widow of Samuel (2) Vail and later the widow of Thomas Gach, of Woodbridge, married (3rd) John Griffith, 20 October, 1709. He was from Bucks Co., Penna., and brought a "Certificate of Clearness" from the Middletown M.M., Bucks Co., Penna. He became an active member of the Woodbridge Friends Meeting (v. Shotwell Family, p. 188). Elizabeth is believed to have had no children by this marriage, being at the time of marriage 52 years of age.

She appears as Elizabeth Gach in the Woodbridge M.M. Records as early as 19 December, 1706. She took a lively and consecrated part in all activities of the Friends Meeting. She supervised the care of the Meeting House and in other ways looked to the comfort of the Society. Doubtless she was the most popular match-maker among these early Quakers for we have counted not fewer than a half dozen couples "presented to the Meeting" intending to marry. She made legal provision for her children at the time of her third marriage and conducted her whole life as a loving parent and a "Mother of Israel". She made her home with her son Thomas at one time, at another with her daughter, Mary Bloodgood.

Her will was found among the papers of the estate of John (5) Vail of Littleton, N.J., a grand-son of John, the Quaker Preacher. It was found by Alfred Vail and recorded among the Vail Papers. It is one of the documents which proves Elizabeth Griffith to be the mother of John (3) Vail. Being thus important it is herewith annexed.

Mary Bloodgood, mentioned ante, died 28 June, 1760, age 59 years, 10 months, therefore, born 28 August, 1700. Consequently Elizabeth Vail married Thomas Gach before 1700 or about 1699 perhaps.

The last Will and Testament of Elizabeth Griffith of Woodbridge, N.J.

"Forasmuch as it is appointed some day to die and the time when very uncertain, I, Elizabeth Griffith, of Woodbridge, in the county of Middlesex and Province of New Jersey, being weak in body, but of a sound, disposing mind and memory and inclined to dispose of the estate that the Lord hath to bless me with, to make this, my last will and testament in manner following: That is to say.

First of all, I desire to resign my soul to God Almighty who gave it me, whensoever it shall please Him to call for it, and my body to the earth, to receive such decent burial as my executors hereinafter named shall think convenient; and as touching my worldly estate, I give and bequeath the same as followeth, viz: First I give and direct that my daughter, Mary Bloodgood, the wife of William Bloodgood shall be fully paid for the trouble that I have been and shall be to them.

Item I give and bequeath to my son Thomas Gach all that remains in his hands (at the time of my decease) of those goods that I have left with him when I came to live with my son-in-law, William Bloodgood.

Item I give and bequeath to my son John Vail, the sum of £ 10, which he has already got in his hands; my will further is that all the meadows which my husband left me to divide at my discretion, shall be divided between my son John Vail and my son Thomas Gach, that is to say that my son John Vail shall have all that my son Thomas Gach has given him a quitclaim for, to be enjoyed by him, his heirs and assigns forever.

Item I give and bequeath to my two daughters, Martha Burling, the wife of Edward Burling of New York and Mary Bloodgood, the wife of William Bloodgood, of Woodbridge, all the remaining part of my estate to be equal divided between them.

Lastly, I nominate, constitute and appoint my two daughters, Martha Burling and Mary Bloodgood, executors of my last will and testament, hereby revoking all others and former wills by me at any time heretofore made, declaring this and this only to be my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 21st day of the Fourth month, commonly called June, in the year of our Lord, 1739.

Signed, sealed, published and declared by the said Elizabeth Griffith as her last will and testament in the presence of us subscribers.

Elizabeth Griffith

John Shotwell
Thomas Pike
Joseph Shotwell

Whereas my daughter, Martha, is dead, mentioned in this will to be my executrix with my daughter Mary; now it is my further will be put my son John Vail Executor in her room and place, giving my son John all power and privilege that my said daughter, Martha, had in the said will, relating thereunto being had may further appear. In testimony hereof I have hereunto set my hand this 17th 10th mo., 1742.

Elizabeth Griffith

Witness: Abraham Shotwell

John Griffith, husband of Elizabeth (Vail Gach) died the 20th 8th mo., 1713, leaving her a widow of 34 years till her decease.

From land records of Westchester Co., N.Y. and reads "Elizabeth Vail, widow of Samuel Vail late of Westchester, quitclaims 26, June, 1695 land to Thomas Hunt

CHARLES VAIL, son of Isaac and Sarah Vail, was born in Plainfield, New Jersey in 1803. In early life he went to New York City where he followed the baker's trade. In 1829 he emigrated to this State (Indiana), locating in Terre Coupee Prairie, St. Joseph County, where he resided in 1832, and then came to this township, where he erected a saw-mill on sec. 31. He followed the lumber business until his death which occurred Feb. 25, 1872. Since that time his sons, A.C. and C. have operated the mill. Two mills have been worn out and the third one erected on the same site. Mr. Vail was among the first settlers of this township; he built a school-house at his own expense, and paid teachers for 3 years. In 1832 he married Miss Olive Stanton, born in Union County, Indiana. Her parents, Aaron and Lydia (Fosdick) Stanton, the former a native of Virginia, and the latter of Massachusetts, were also early settlers. Mr. Stanton died in 1850 and Mrs. Stanton about 1845.

Mr. and Mrs. Vail have had 9 children, 7 of whom are living (1880): Augusta V., wife of Mr. Brooks, the inventor of Brook's water wheel; Caroline V., wife of Mr. Cushing; Isaac, Aaron S., Julia (now Mrs. Quinby), Charles and Olive (now Mrs. Riley). Mrs. Vail still occupies the old homestead. She was reared a Quaker, as was also her husband.
